

General Thermostat Questions

Should I turn air conditioning system off during the day when away?

No, the best way to run your system is to keep your home conditioned. Keep your system running 79 to 82 degrees when away during the summer. This way your house stays conditioned and is easily pulled down to a comfortable temperature when you arrive home.

Unique solution ID: #1020

Author: Beau Creamer

Last update: 2013-11-12 20:21